About the Role

Rosebank College is now seeking expressions of interest for Casual Teachers to join our professional and dedicated teaching staff.

We are currently recruiting across all subject areas and we would be very happy to receive applications from specialist teachers in the following disciplines: Religious Education, TAS and Visual Arts. However, casual teachers from any subject area are encouraged to apply.

About You

The successful applicant will model professionalism and collegiality and be able to display integrity, enthusiasm and energy. If this sounds like you, we encourage you to apply.

To be considered for this role, you must have the following knowledge, skills and experience:

- Demonstrated experience in differentiation of curriculum
- Formal teaching qualifications in one or more disciplines / subject areas
- Current NESA Accreditation and approval to teach in NSW
- Possess a valid Working with Children Check
- Evidence that you are fully vaccinated against COVID-19
- The ability to work effectively and cohesively within the appointed faculty
- The capacity to work effectively with young people to develop successful study habits
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Support of the Catholic ethos and learning culture of the College

- A commitment to the child safeguarding principles

For further information about the role, view the position description here.

The Process

If you meet the requirements of this position, please apply now by submitting your application to the Principal, Rosebank College, via email to recruitment@rosebank.nsw.edu.au.

In your application, you will need to provide:

- A cover letter
- A copy of your CV
- Three (3) referees including your current employer (if applicable)
- Formal teaching qualifications including any academic transcripts (provide copies)
- Current NESA Accreditation and approval to teach in NSW (provide copies)
- A current NSW Working With Children Check number
- Evidence of the PHO requirement that you are fully vaccinated against COVID-19

The appointment of a successful candidate is conditional and based on the successful completion of all pre-employment screening for child-related employment and reference checks.
