International Benedictine Short Stay Student Exchange Program (IBSSSEP)

The International Benedictine Short Stay Student Exchange Program (IBSSSEP) provides students with the opportunity to learn in a dynamic environment whilst observing a new culture and establishing long lasting friendships.

Based on a 4-5 week program, the IBSSSEP is a timely snapshot into the lives of students across the world, living and breathing our shared Good Samaritan Benedictine values.

Benefits of the IBSSSEP:

- Promotes independence, global awareness and maturity
- Opportunity to visit a new country and live the culture for 4-5 weeks
- Experience the learning environment in an international school
- Avenue to meet and build long lasting friendships

The program has two components: Hosting and Travelling

Hosting

(Rosebank families host international students)

- Open to all families of students in Years 7-11
- Host a student from a partner school for the duration of their visit in July / August
- Host family provides accommodation, food and related activity expenses

Testimonial - Mr. & Mrs. Judge

'They came for 4 weeks and found a home for life. The experience was both enriching for our family and our exchange student Jaume and Lara. We are now a little more Catalan and German. Jaume and Lara have become truly Australian.'

Travelling

(Rosebank students travelling Overseas)

- Open to students in Years 9-11
- Students travel for 4-5 weeks in late December / early January
- Students who participate in the travel component are required to host a student from an overseas partner school
