About the Role

A school of Good Samaritan Education, Rosebank College seeks expressions of interest for the position of Visual Arts Teacher to join the Creative and Performing Arts Department (CAPA) in a temporary full-time (1.0 FTE) position until the conclusion of Term 4, 2022 school year.

Commencing early Term 2 as soon as possible, and reporting to the CAPA Coordinator, the successful candidate will teach Years 7 to 11 Visual Arts, with an emphasis on teaching digital photography, film and animation. The suitable candidate will encourage students to represent their ideas through a variety of art forms, techniques and media in a well-resourced art studio space. The Visual Arts program at Rosebank College promotes arts learning where self-expression and creative exploration is encouraged.

The Visual Arts Teacher will work collaboratively within the CAPA department and across all year groups, undertaking responsibilities within the team, as required by the CAPA Coordinator. The CAPA faculty is highly successful and fosters a culture of continuous improvement committed to student centred practice.

The College offers excellent support to all teachers to enable them to develop on their professional journey through professional development. All staff are required to be involved in the pastoral care of our students and need to be able to demonstrate a commitment to the ideals and ethos of Catholic Education and be willing to participate in extracurricular programs.

About You

The College welcomes applications from artistic and talented qualified educators specialising in either painting, ceramics, design and/or photography, and who possess an exceptional teaching record with the ability to produce outstanding outcomes for all students.

The successful applicant will be enthusiastic, passionate and a committed member of our College and be prepared to contribute to all aspects of College life. It is an expectation that all staff support the vision and goals of the College as a learning community.

Applicants for this position must be excellent classroom practitioners, dedicated team players, interested in the care and welfare of students, and have particular skills in their teaching of Visual Arts to equip them to contribute to the College's educational program in teaching and learning. Applicants will also need to be skilled in their use of educational technology in the classroom. This position will allow a creative and passionate teacher and their students to flourish.

The successful candidate will be an outstanding educator who is highly motivated to support Rosebank College to ensure continued academic achievement, by inspiring and developing innovative learning which engages, and values every learner.
